

International Symposium on

Recent Advances in Male Reproduction

July 12-14, 1988

University of Hyderabad

Hyderabad, India

Main Topics

Inhibin – basic aspects and molecular biology of inhibin

Maturation of spermatozoa

Androgen binding protein – new developments

Role of new peptides in testis function

Methods for the regulation of fertility-including immunological aspects

New developments in the mechanism of action of androgens

Regulation of steroidogenesis in testis

The program will consist of 3-4 invited speakers for each of the above topics. A limited number of free communications may also be accepted. Any one interested in participating in the Symposium is requested to contact the secretariat. Abstracts (200 words) for free communications along with registration fee must reach by January 31, 1988. The list of speakers will be given in the second circular.

Registration

Foreign                      US $ 150
Indian                        Rs. 500

Official language

The official language of the Symposium will be English

Proceedings

The proceedings of the Symposium will be published

Secretariat

For further information, please contact :

Prof. P.R.K. Reddy
School of Life Sciences
University of Hyderabad
Hyderabad-500 134
INDIA

(Co-sponsored by the Indian Society of Andrology)